

American Eagle Offers Special Student and Educator Rates From GNV Through StudentUniverse.com

Interested in flying at a student rate? Have an email address ending in .edu? You may be eligible for great low fares from American Eagle as well as other travel deals through a travel search engine made especially for you—StudentUniverse.com.

American Eagle and American Airlines know you are on a tight budget. They're working with StudentUniverse, the largest online student travel agency in the United States, to make air travel affordable for college students, faculty, and youth, ages 18-25.

This search engine is specifically designed for travelers willing to be flexible on travel dates in order to get the cheapest fare. Users can select to search up to three days before and three days after their preferred departure and return dates to get real time cheapest fares on up to 49 travel day combinations – plus an expanded array of more airfare options with one click.

For more information or to register, visit www.StudentUniverse.com.